4. Pacific International Academy at Seisen University Purpose of this program

■ Intensive multiple language program to develop the language needs of the current and future global society

◆ In today's increasingly global society, multiple language skills are necessary. More individuals are demanded by companies to speak multiple languages with English as an important international language and Japanese as a specified language. With these skills, students can find themselves more competitive in the job market as people who have the ability to communicate to various people from around the world. In this unique program, students take intensive English with native English teachers and then intensive Japanese with native Japanese speaking teachers. Additionally, to further improve Japanese language skills, students are immersed in situations where they hear Japanese every day. Throughout the program, students have many chances to meet many people Japanese people as well as native English speakers to help develop multiple languages. Our location in Tokyo is the perfect setting for a multiple language and culture learning environment. With Tokyo as one of the biggest international cities in Japan and with Seisen University as a desired location to acquire a wealth of cultural knowledge.

■ Expose yourself to a different culture and country

◆ Learn and feel the differences of lifestyle, food, history, people, culture and more. Students can learn Japanese and English through experience and activities with Seisen University students. Students can practically learn about Japanese culture and other cultures while learning Japanese & English language too.

■ Learn about Japan through fun and enjoyable activities

◆ Students can learn about Japan through our activities to special sites around Tokyo such as Harajuku, Shibuya, Meiji shrine, Asakusa. Enjoy these trips with Japanese students and other country students together. Enjoy Yukata kimono wearing while walking around Harajuku! Learn and experience the tradition of the Japanese Tea Ceremony too!
